- (a) Pay of Lt.-Col., Major and Captain, on re-employment as Commandant,

Assistant Commandant, and Company Commander/Quarter Master respectively in these scales will be fixed in accordance with the orders contained in the Ministry of Finance's Memo. No. 8(34)-Est. III/57, dated the 25th November, 1958, and the Ministry of Home Affairs' letter No. F. 8/29/60-Police-II, dated the 21st December, 1962. For this purpose, the pre-retirement pay of the officer holding substantive rank will be reckoned in the following manner:—

- (i) Pre-retirement pay in the Army (inclusive of Rs. 500 acting rank pay if the officer was acting in a higher rank) plus.
 - (ii) half of the special pay admissible to serving officers on deputation to the Central Reserve Police in the rank to which he is appointed.
 - (iii) Acting rank pay will be reckoned towards pre-retirement pay provided the acting rank was held continuously for at least one year on the date of retirement.
- (b) After determining the pre-retirement pay as above, the pay of the officer will be fixed at the minimum of the scale subject to the condition that the pay plus pension plus pension equivalent of other forms of retirement benefits does not exceed the pre-retirement pay computed in the manner prescribed in clause (a). Actual fixation will be done in consultation with the Ministry of Finance. The Principal, Central Training College, Central Reserve Police will also be entitled to free unfurnished accommodation.
- (c) Once the initial pay has been fixed, normal increments will be allowed provided that the pay and gross pension/pension equivalent of other retirement benefits taken together do not at any time exceed Rs. 3,000 per month.
- (d) Officers re-employed initially as Company Commanders/Quarter Masters and Assistant Commandant when promoted to the rank of Assistant Commandant and Commandant get special pay of Rs. 50 and Rs. 75 respectively in addition to the pay for the post in which they were initially re-employed prior to promotion.

3. Indian Police Service Officers—Deputationists.—The points of Commandant/Principal, Central Training College and Assistant Commandant are equated to those of Assistant Director in the Intelligence Bureau and Superintendent of Police in the Special Police Establishment respectively, I.P.S. Officers appointed as Commandant and Assistant Commandant will draw a special pay of Rs. 300 and Rs. 200 respectively, and a compensatory allowance of Rs. 100 and Rs. 50 respectively. An I.P.S. Officer appointed as Principal, Central Training College will draw a special pay of Rs. 200 and be entitled to a rent free unfurnished accommodation. The above special pays and compensatory allowances will be in addition to pay in the Senior Scale of the Indian Police Service.

This will include non-I.P.S. Officers holding the rank of Superintendent of Police or equivalent posts in States subject to the condition that—

- (a) The officer concerned should have immediately before his appointment in the Central Reserve Police held a post equivalent in status and responsibilities to the post of Superintendent of Police.
- (b) the State Government concerned certifies that the officer would have continued to officiate in a post equivalent to that of the Superintendent of Police but for his deputation to the Central Reserve Police.
- (c) the grade pay drawn by the officer concerned in the State is in a scale equivalent to, but not higher than, the senior scale of the Indian Police Service.

4. For non-I.P.S. Officers (excluding Army Officers).—Promoted from the rank of Company Commander/Quarter Master, Assistant Principal, Central Training College to the posts of Assistant Commandant, Commandant and Principal, Central Training College:—
